Records of the office of New Orleans architect Martin Shepard (1875-1962), and Shepard and Riblet. Shepard was a graduate of Stevens Institute of Technology. He worked for the Dierks-Blodgett Shipbuilding Company of Pascagoula, Mississippi during the period of the First World War. He later worked for the architectural firm Toledano and Wogan, and then practiced as an architect for a short time with Carl E. Riblet, and then on his own.

PROVENANCE

Records were given by Brent E. Smith to Tulane in 1988.
