Project photographs, drawings, and biographical material
Ca. 1904 – ca. 1929
2 folders; one box

Records of the office of New Orleans architect Rathbone DeBuys (1874-1960). A substantial part of the records is photographs of DeBuys buildings and photographs of drawings for DeBuys buildings. There is also biographical material and a few sets of project drawings. Trained at Tulane University, DeBuys practiced during the early part of his career with Frank G. Churchill and Samuel Stanhope Labouisse (DeBuys, Churchill, and Labouisse). He worked later under his own name.

PROVENANCE

Biographical material was given by DeBuys' daughter, Maxine Bray, to Tulane in 1980. The photographs were in the picture files in the Reference Department of Howard-Tilton Library and then transferred to the Louisiana Collection (now the Louisiana Research Collection) of Howard-Tilton Library.
