

William C. Williams and Brother Office Records

SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE
COLLECTION 37

Design for an unidentified stair hall. Ca. 1900. Williams Brothers, architects. Pencil and watercolor on paper.

SCOPE and CONTENTS

Project drawings
1863 – ca. 1920
One box

Records of the New Orleans architectural office of William C. Williams and Brother (William C. Williams, 1860-?; C. Milo Williams, 1867-1954). Included are project drawings and one land survey created by the Williams family of the Carrollton section of New Orleans, Louisiana. Earliest records date from 1863 to 1868, and are associated with the Williams brothers' father, city surveyor William H. Williams (1817-1886), who platted Carrollton when it was part of Jefferson Parish. Successor offices are indicated in the following chronology.

PROVENANCE

Architectural drawings of the Williams brothers, and photographic glass plate negatives (C. Milo Williams Photographs, SEAA Collection 149) were purchased by Samuel Wilson, Jr. at a sale of the contents of the Williams family home at 1035 South Carrollton Avenue, New Orleans, in the mid-1960s. Wilson gave the negatives to Tulane ca. 1968. He later gave the architectural drawings to Tulane ca. 1973.
