SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE COLLECTION 6

Interior design for the Tulane Shop, 1012-1014 Canal Street, New Orleans. 1920. Harry L. Moses, interior decorator. Pencil and colored pencil on textured gray paper.

SCOPE and CONTENTS

Project drawings, some specifications and correspondence

Ca. 1899 – ca, 1927

5 flat file drawers; 1 box

Records of the office of New Orleans interior designer Harry L. Moses (circa 1875-circa 1933). Records consist mostly of drawings, with the addition of scattered correspondence and specifications dating from circa 1899 – circa 1927. Note: Drawings and blueprints are very brittle.

Moses had a successful career as an interior designer in New Orleans during the early part of the 20th century. His commissions include the interior for the B.P.O.E. Lodge No. 30 in New Orleans, as well as residential projects in New Orleans.

PROVENANCE

Drawings were stored in the attic of Moses at his last business address, 313 Royal Street, New Orleans, where they were forgotten after his death. They were discovered by architect Leon Impastato, during a survey of the building, who arranged for the building's owner, Kenneth Nahan, to make them a gift to Tulane in 1981.
