SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE
COLLECTION 65

Angela Gregory, Samuel Wilson, Jr., Leonard V. Huber, and Reverend Charles O'Neill, S.J. with the OPLC plaque placed on New Orleans founder, Jean Baptiste LeMoyne, Sieur de Bienville's residence in Paris, France. 1968.

SCOPE and CONTENTS

Research notes, correspondence, and some photographs
1956 – 2016
6 boxes

Collection 65/Rev. 11/23/2016/KW/1

Records of the Orleans Parish Landmarks Commission, a New Orleans preservation organization. Chartered by the Louisiana Legislature in 1957, the OPLC designated historic structures in Orleans Parish and marked them with plaques describing their history and significance. The records include write-ups for plaques, research notes, and original photographic negatives showing many of the completed plaques after installation.

PROVENANCE

Records were given by the Orleans Parish Landmarks Commission to Tulane in 1985. Additions are given on an irregular basis.

ACCESS

This collection is housed in Tulane University Libraries' Southeastern Architectural Archive (SEAA) and requires an advance appointment for use. For further information, call (504) 865-5699, or email seaa@tulane.edu. The unauthorized use, including, but not limited to, publication of the materials without the prior written permission of the Southeastern Architectural Archive is strictly prohibited. All inquiries regarding permission to publish should be submitted in writing. Please see our Permission to Publish Guidelines.
