SOUTHEASTERN ARCHITECTURAL ARCHIVE COLLECTION 84

Interior for unidentified furniture showroom, unidentified location. Ca. 1950s. James R. Lamantia, architect. Ink and pastel on tracing paper.

SCOPE and CONTENTS

Project drawings, photographs, and negatives; collected drawings and prints
Ca. 1580 – 1990
12 boxes; 5 flat file drawers

Records of the office of New Orleans architect James R. Lamantia, Jr. (1923-2011) and American and European drawings and prints collected during his career. Records include drawings for projects in New Orleans, other cities in Louisiana, and also projects in New York, New York, and other cities. Also included are photographic negatives by Frank Lotz Miller of projects of Burk, LeBreton, and Lamantia; and Lawrence and Saunders.

New Orleans architect and artist James Rogers Lamantia, Jr. was a graduate of Tulane University's School of Architecture (B.S. 1943) and Harvard University's Graduate School of Design (M.Arch. 1947). Lamantia worked on his own, and was a name partner with the New Orleans firm, Burk, LeBreton, and Lamantia. After graduating from Harvard, he returned to Tulane's School of Architecture where he taught for many years. He was appointed full professor in 1974, director of the school's graduate program in 1985, and named Richard Koch Chair in Architecture in 1993. He received the Prix de Rome, a fellowship in architecture, from the American Academy in Rome in 1948. In 1978 he served as Fulbright Professor at the University of Jordan, Amman. Lamantia was also an accomplished painter, and his work was exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum and Whitney Museum in New York, and the Art Institute of Chicago.

PROVENANCE

Records and collections of drawings and other items were given by James R. Lamantia, Jr. to Tulane in groups from 1980 - 2000.
